Friends of Seedtime,

Èske ou swaf? Are you thirsty?

Yes, Frantz had yet another Bible study postponed, this time, due to the host Pastor being accused of inappropriate behavior by the other church leaders. They postponed our Bible study until the church gets their issue resolved.

I used to say we had 2 out of 3 classes fail to commence. Then it was 3 of 4. Now, it is more like 4 of 5 fail to start.

Nevertheless, it is as if Frantz has read Romans 12:12
Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, and faithful in prayer.

Instead of being discouraged... we see Frantz continuing to seek out students. And he is not settling for just anything to stand in front of so he can say he is teaching. No, he is looking for someone who is ready for class. He has repeated to us... "I am looking for students who are thirsty."

Want an example? Recently, Frantz was handed an audience of 180 students to teach on a Whatsapp call. Frantz did teach them, but afterwards he complained to the organizer. Frantz said it was too many students.

What do you mean? Why would Frantz be unhappy?

Because Frantz knew they were there because it was free and easy to attend... as if it is just something to fill their time. Frantz' could tell this class was not vetted. And he was wanting those who were thirsty.

Public school teachers in America probably have no idea how much can be learned when each student is actually thirsty for the information taught. Maybe it sounds odd, but we have enjoyed quality class time when we eliminated the students who are not ready.

A motivated class, working hard in our 15-hour class results in smiles and compliments galore. They're ready to continue reading their Bibles.... exactly what we want.

Those students are better prepared to step up to teach the others when the next group shows interests.

So Frantz keeps asking students BEFORE class... Èske ou swaf?

Your prayers and support are important to us.

Thank you for walking with Seedtime and Harvest!

Your financial support is appreciated

IT'S NOT A HARLEY HE'S RIDIN'.

IT'S MADE IN INDIA.
IT DOES THE JOB.

FRANTZ IS USING IT TO COVER HAITI, ASKING WHO IS THIRSTY.

THOSE WHO SAY YES, GET A GREAT BIBLE STUDY.

Those who would see fit to help with Prayer and Finances

to keep Frantz rolling, would be doing a valuable service.

It's discipleship in Haiti.
