Friends of Seedtime,

Now I am free.

Frantz recently met a Haitian man in the market who asked him, "Do you remember me?" I'm the one who was in your class a couple years ago arguing that your (Biblical) view on debt was excessive and without value. Since then I worked with my wife to become free of debt. You spoke the truth and now I know that. Thank you.

Discipleship comes in small steps, and slowly at that. But it does the heart good to hear feedback like this.

Radio broadcasts grow while face-to-face teaching needs more prayer.

We previously reported that another FM station in Haiti did a brief on-air test of Frantz and apparently he passed. TeleBouje FM called back to have him on again. Frantz continues to be on Haitian radio multiple times a week, freely teaching God's Word. Prayers for Frantz to use this time properly and speak as God leads is always welcomed. It is a great blessing and responsibility and we understand that.

However, we see our face-to-face bible studies struggle to get scheduled and not get postponed or canceled. Host Pastors are certainly not solely to blame, but they are the weakest link in the process.

On December 5, 6 and 7 a Pastor committed to hosting Seedtime's Bible study. Now, the offer will likely be rescinded.

So please take time for a special prayer. We simply ask that the process be fulfilled, from beginning to end. We've seen amazing success, if the class gets to start. Face-to-face, eye to eye is best. We are grateful for Radio, but we know where we came from... small groups.

On a positive note, Frantz begins a 3 day Bible study November 28, 29 and 30th with another church. That Pastor appears enthusiastic and plans to personally be in attendance. While you're eating turkey this November 28th, pray for the class Frantz is teaching.

Speaking of November 28th
Happy Thanksgiving!

Haiti doesn't celebrate Thanksgiving, but they informally say "Fèt Kodenn" or "Turkey Holiday" about our special day.

GIVING THANKS FILLS US

...the singers raised their voices in praise to the LORD and sang:

"He is good; his love endures forever."

Then the temple of the LORD was filled with the cloud, <sup>14</sup>..... the glory of the LORD filled the temple of God.

2 Chronicles 5:13b-14

Who among us doesn't need filled?

Being thankful and praising God is an option we may have failed to consider.
